

20 Reasons to have an STTI Chapter in Your School

1. Provides student engagement opportunities
2. Facilitates visionary thinking
3. Helps set scholarly goals for the organization
4. Fosters ongoing professional learning of faculty
5. Promotes networking at all levels
6. Provides access to incredible resources
7. Enhances recognition of student and community nurse excellence
8. Provides access to a global community of nurses with similar goals
9. Enhances scholarship of students and faculty
10. Develops the leadership skills of students, faculty, and community members
11. Helps build a professional community
12. Improves health through scholarly educational programs
13. Fosters individual development as a member of one of the most prestigious global nursing organizations
14. Increases school visibility through society publications
15. Increases school visibility within the academic community
16. Provides an opportunity to interact with outstanding leaders within and external to the profession
17. Increases school visibility within the public community
18. Promotes collaboration with colleagues in service and policy
19. Increases students and faculty sensitivity to global issues of health
20. Provides scholarship opportunities for students and members.

Sigma Theta Tau International
Honor Society of Nursing®