

Sample Text for University Websites

The institution of higher education that is affiliated with your developing honor society might allow you to post information on the school website. Your developing honor society should use this opportunity to explain what STTI is and how your developing honor society is working hard toward the goal of becoming an official STTI chapter.

If you do not have direct or immediate access to change this text, use general terms and statements instead of specific numbers or statistics. This way, potential members will not see conflicting information. Following are a few sample paragraphs that your developing honor society can copy and paste and adapt to meet its needs.

[Name of developing honor society] is working toward chapter status with Sigma Theta Tau International (STTI). Our developing honor society follows the same mission, vision, and values of STTI. The founders chose the name from the Greek words Storgé, Tharsos, and Timé, meaning “love,” “courage,” and “honor.” More than 90 years later, there are more than 135,000 active STTI members in more than 500 chapters around the world!

Organizational Mission

The mission of STTI is advancing world health and celebrating nursing excellence in scholarship, leadership, and service.

Organizational Vision

The vision of STTI is to be the global organization of choice for nursing.

Membership

Membership is by invitation to baccalaureate and graduate nursing students who demonstrate excellence in scholarship and to nurse leaders who exhibit exceptional achievements in nursing.

[Developing honor society name] at [institution of higher education] is dedicated to providing a rewarding and unique professional development experience through developing honor society membership.
