

The Frances Payne Bolton School of Nursing at Case Western Reserve University warmly congratulates

Carol M. Musil, PhD, RN, FAAN, FGSA

*Dean and Edward J. and Louise Mellen
Professor of Nursing*

Sigma International Nurse Researcher
Hall of Fame Inductee

Dean Musil is a distinguished scholar and has served as dean of the Frances Payne Bolton School of Nursing since July 2019. Her research focuses on the physical and psychological health of caregivers over time and interventions that affect health and family well-being during times of strain and transition.

A Fellow of the American Academy of Nursing and the Gerontological Society of America, Musil's commitment to students and colleagues in the nursing profession as well as other disciplines is unparalleled.

Congratulations on this well-earned global honor!
