

Creating a Facebook fundraiser for Sigma Foundation for Nursing's Steps for Research

Facebook fundraising is a great tool to raise donations online. Individuals who donate through Facebook receive an acknowledgment through Network for Good. The Sigma Foundation for Nursing is not provided with donor names and therefore is unable to issue additional receipts or recognition for donations received this way.

Fundraiser title: Support me in the Steps for Research challenge

Why are you raising money?

I'm participating in the Steps for Research Fundraising Challenge. On November 17 and 18 I'll be tracking my steps to help the Sigma Foundation for Nursing increase funding for research grants awarded to nurses around the world. You can help me by donating today. Your donation, whether $5 or $500, makes a difference.

Donations received will benefit the Sigma Foundation for Nursing, a 501(C)(3) organization.

The screenshot shows a fundraising form titled "Tell your story". At the top, there is an illustration of a person running with a step counter. Below the title, there are two sections for text input. The first section is labeled "What's the title of your fundraiser?" and contains the text "Support me in the Steps for Research challenge". The second section is labeled "Why are you raising money?" and contains the text: "I'm participating in the Steps for Research Fundraising Challenge.
