Newsletter

Member of the American Nurses Association

As we end the 2022 fiscal year, I am honored to share what your donations have made possible over the last year. The Sigma Foundation for Nursing continues to serve nurses globally to improve healthcare disparities, thanks to donors like you. We could not continue our work without you. Thank you for making the featured achievements below possible and for continuing to support nursing research, leadership, and Sigma programs and events.

Gratefully yours,

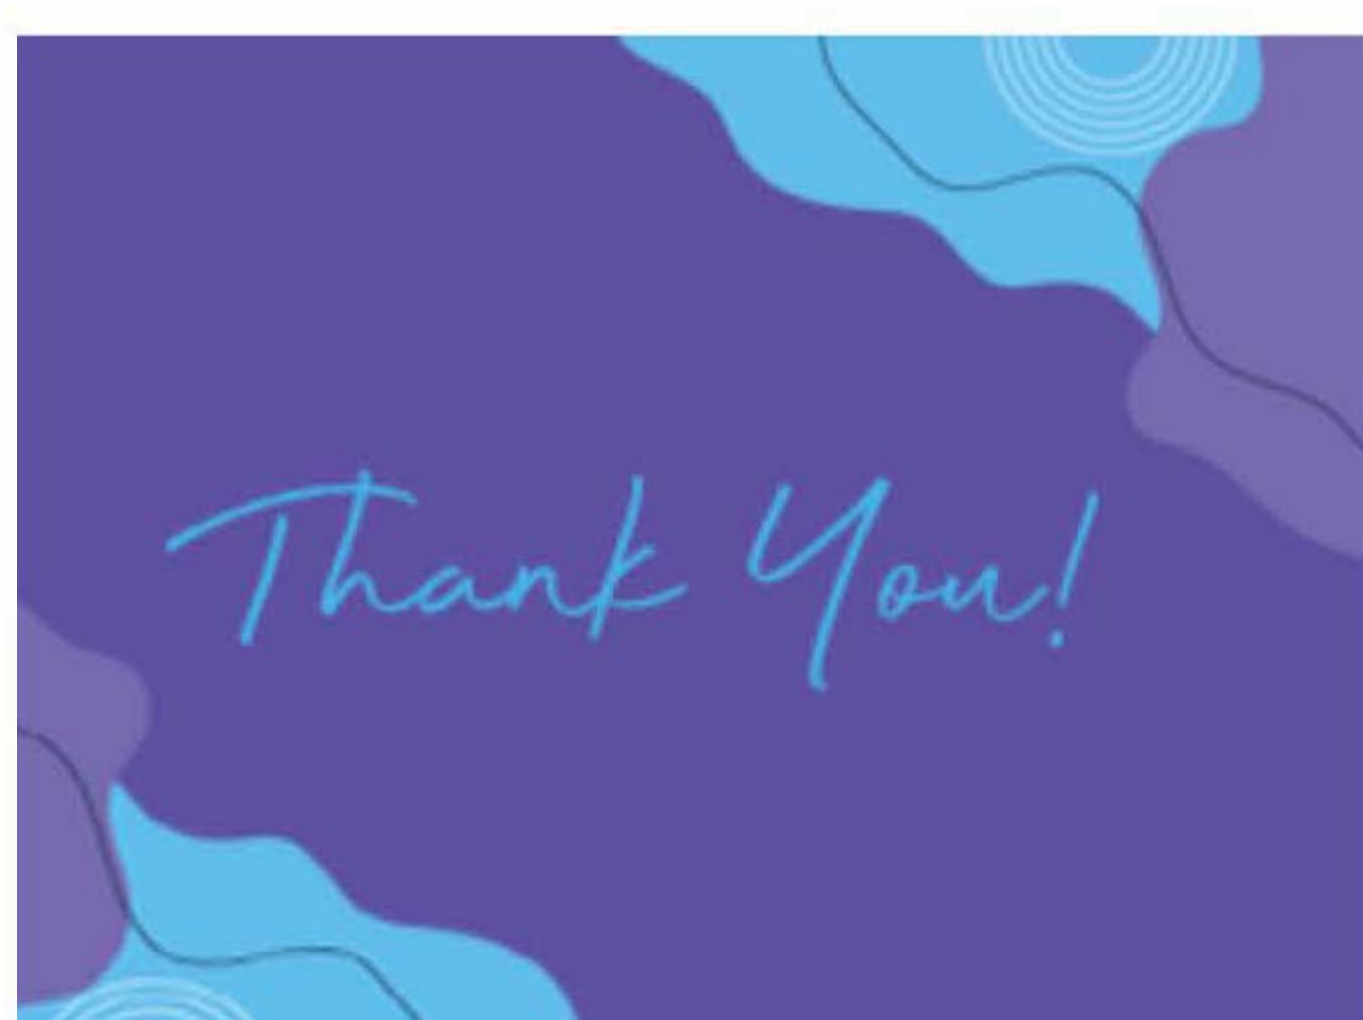

Anna M. McDaniel, 2021–2023 Board Chair

Congratulations to our research grant recipients

Because of your donation to the research permanent fund, the Sigma Foundation for Nursing is funding 19 research studies in three global regions this month. Primary investigators of six studies joined us virtually in April to discuss their projects. We invite you to watch the video here to see your donations at work! Your generosity as a Sigma Foundation for Nursing donor continues to empower nurse researchers around the world. To read about all studies, click here.

A successful 2022 International Nurses Day

The Foundation appreciates all the donors who made gifts to support nursing research, leadership, and the future of nursing on International Nurses Day, 12 May. A list of International Nurses Day donors can be found here. Our fiscal year 2022 will culminate on 30 June.

If you'd like to renew your support, please do so here.

Thank you to our 100th anniversary donors

Sigma is celebrating 100 years on 5 October 2022! Thank you to all donors who supported nursing research, leadership, programs, and events through a donation of US $100 or more in recognition of Sigma's founding.

As Sigma's 100th anniversary celebration continues, please consider a US $100 gift by Founders Day on 5 October 2022 and sustain the future of nursing leadership and research. Your name will be added to the Founders Day donor list.
