UNITED NATIONS ACTIVITY REPORT

The 60th session of the Commission on the Status of Women took place at the United Nations Headquarters in New York from 14 to 24 March 2016.

The Commission on the Status of Women (CSW) is the principal global intergovernmental body exclusively dedicated to the promotion of gender equality and the empowerment of women. A functional commission of the Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC), it was established by Council resolution 11(II) of 21 June 1946.

The following summary is from the reception for non-governmental delegates held on March 15, 2016 at the Rosenthal Pavilion, New York University, New York City, NY.

Report submitted by Constance Sobon Sensor, STTI United Nations Liaison

Summary: The reception presented many opportunities to meet and connect with people from other like-minded non-governmental organizations. Ambassador Usman Sarki from Nigeria was in attendance and extended an invitation to STTI to visit him at the Nigerian Embassy. Nigerian nurse educators working in the USA take nurses or nursing students from the USA to Nigeria and Uganda to work on ongoing projects as part of their community health education.
