

United Nations Activity Report

The Commission on the Status of Women held the parallel event “Through Sexual Violence Prevention Network to Empower Women and Girls” on Tuesday, 12 March 2019.

Report Submitted by Pennie Sessler Branden, Sigma United Nations Liaison

This event was an informational and educational session regarding programs in Taiwan to reduce sexual violence against women through prevention that includes education and empowerment of women, politicians, and citizens.

It especially impacts Sustainable Development Goals 5, 8, 10, and 17. These are impacted mainly because the panels and presentations were about establishing social protections for women and girls through education, equal pay for equal work, food security, and ending violence against women. They emphasized partnerships to make these programs sustainable.
